8. INCIDENT DETAILS The Pennsylvania State Police continue to investigate the disappearance of Brenda Louise CONDON Eighteen years later. The Pennsylvania State Police, Rockview, continue their investigation into the disappearance of Brenda Louise Condon. Brenda Condon was last seen during the early morning hours of February 27, 1991 in the Carl's Bad Tavern, (now the location of Home Delivery Pizza), where she had been working as a bartender. The following day, other bar employees found the bar unoccupied, Brenda Condon's car was in the bar's parking lot, a pair of cowboy boots, believed to be hers, was found in the men's room of the bar but she was nowhere to be found. The Spring Twp. Police Dept. initiated this investigation upon notification of the disappearance in 1991. They retained primary jurisdiction over the investigation until 1997 at which point they requested PSP to assume primary jurisdiction over the investigation. The state police actively continue to investigate the victim's disappearance. To view information on the investigation go to the PA State Police website at www.psp.state.pa.us, click on 'Troop/Station Information', 'Troop G - Hollidaysburg', then 'Investigations'. Throughout the ensuing 18-year investigation numerous leads have been followed-up, and are continuing to be investigated, but to date the whereabouts of Brenda Condon is still unknown. We continue to request that anyone who has information about the disappearance of Brenda Condon to contact the State Police at Rockview, 814-355-7545. Anyone with information and wishing to remain anonymous may contact Centre County Crime Stoppers at 1-877-99CRIME or by calling PA Crime Stoppers at 1-800-4-PA-TIPS.
